AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Eunice C. Hardage.

December 28, 1945
[H. R. 3834]
[Private Law 358]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of the Act entitled "An Act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes", approved September 7, 1916, as amended (U. S. C., 1934 edition, title 5, secs. 767 and 770) are hereby waived in favor of Eunice C. Hardage, widow of Newton G. Hardage, former rural mail carrier, at Dallas, Georgia, whose death of pneumonia occurred on January 8, 1936, alleged to have been caused by exposure, and her claim for compensation is authorized to be considered and acted upon under the remaining provisions of such Act, as amended, if she files such claim with the United States Compensation Commission not later than six months after the date of enactment of this Act, or within that time renews her claim heretofore filed which has been denied because of failure to comply with said provisions of said Act: Provided, That no benefits hereunder shall accrue prior to the approval of this Act.

Eunice C. Hardage.
39 Stat. 746.
5 U. S. C. §§ 765–770.

Approved December 28, 1945.
