Chap. CCII.—An Act for the relief of John H. Howland, of New York.

Payment to him for drawback on sugar.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be paid to John H. Howland, of New York, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two thousand five hundred and forty-seven dollars thirty-two cents, being the amount of drawback on two hundred and thirty-seven boxes of sugar, shipped on board the brig William Howland, Captain Akin, for Hamburg, and which were retained from him by the collector of the customs at New York, in consequence, as alleged, of his not having given the bond prescribed by law, on exportation, for the benefit of drawback.

$1500 to be allowed him in addition to his stated salary.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby, authorized to allow to John Mitchell, late agent for prisoners of war at Halifax, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, in addition to his stated salary, during the time of his absence from the United States, on said agency; and, also, such further credits as shall appear just and equitable, for so much of his account as shall have been suspended for want of regular vouchers; and, in addition thereto, the sum of five thousand dollars, the amount of a bill of exchange standing to his debit on the books of the treasury.

Approved, May 26, 1824.

Chap. CCIV.—An Act for the relief of the legal representative of Thomas Robinson, deceased.

Account to be settled at the Treasury.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury department be, and hereby are, authorized and directed to settle and adjust, upon principles of equity and justice, the account of Thomas Robinson, now deceased, who was one of the sureties of Sharp Delaney, deceased, lately collector of the customs for the port of Philadelphia, in the Pennsylvania district; charging the said Thomas Robinson with the balance ascertained, at the treasury department, to be due from the said Sharp Delaney, collector as aforesaid, without interest, and allowing him credit for all sums of money which have been paid by him, or his co-sureties, in the said obligation, and for all other sums that have been paid or secured to the United States, towards satisfaction of the balance claimed to be due from the said Sharp Delaney, as collector aforesaid, and which, according to the principles of equity, ought to be allowed; and, upon such settlement, if no balance shall be found against the said Thomas Robinson, or if any balance shall be found against him, then, upon the payment of such balance by his legal representative, the Secretary of the Treasury shall release and discharge the legal representative, and the estate of the said Thomas Robinson, from all further claim and demand by the United States, for, or on account of, the obligation by which he became bound to the United States, as surety for said Sharp Delaney, and for, or on account of, any judgment or judgments heretofore obtained by the United States against the said Thomas Robinson, in his life-time, upon the said obligation, or for any sum of money claimed from him, as surety of the said Sharp Delaney: Provided, always, That nothing herein shall release the estate of the said Sharp Delaney from the claim of the United States.

Proviso.
Sharp Delaney's estate not released.

Approved, May 26, 1824.
