Chap. LXXI.—An Act for the relief of Henry Hitchcock.

A credit allowed him for four horses for the use of the militia.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury department are hereby authorized and required to enter to the credit of Henry Hitchcock, a sum not exceeding two hundred and seventy dollars, it being the sum stated to have been paid by said Hitchcock, for four horses, to individuals belonging to the company of Captain Thomas H. Boyles, of the militia, in the late territory of Mississippi: Provided, however, That credit, as aforesaid, shall not be given, unless, within a reasonable time, the said Hitchcock produces to said accounting officers such evidence as would have authorized the payment for said horses, under the provisions of the act of the ninth of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, entitled "An act to authorize the payment for property lost, captured, or destroyed, by the enemy, while in the military service of the United States, and for other purposes."
