Chap. LXXXVII.—An Act for the relief of John Stienman, James Winner, and Ann M. Nippes, executrix of Abraham Nippes.

Claim for the manufacture of arms under a contract with Tench Coxe, to be settled.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury settle and adjust the claim of John Stienman, James Winner, and Ann M. Nippes, executrix of Abraham Nippes, for the manufacture of four thousand one hundred stand of arms, for the United States, under a contract with Tench Coxe, entered into in the year eighteen hundred and eight, and to make to them such further allowance as shall be equal to that allowed to others who contracted about the same time to manufacture arms for the United States, and who have had their accounts settled, under special acts of Congress, keeping in view the quality of the arms delivered, with the additional labor bestowed, more than would have been necessary to have made muskets equal to the pattern gun, and such allowance so made, deducting therefrom such sums, if any, as the claimants are indebted to the United States for advances made on said contract, with the interest thereon from the twenty-sixth of October, eighteen hundred and thirteen, shall be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, May 20, 1826.
