

STATUTE I.

May 20, 1826.

CHAP. CXIX.—An Act for the relief of a company of rangers, under the command of Captain James Bigger.

Allowed full pay for certain periods.

Be it enacted, &c., That the accounting officers in the treasury department pay to the company of rangers which entered into the service of the United States, for one year, in the month of May, eighteen hundred and thirteen, their full pay as mounted rangers, from the first to the twenty-fourth of March, eighteen hundred and fourteen, inclusive, deducting therefrom what they have heretofore received, as dismounted rangers, for that period; also the full pay allowed by law for mounted rangers, for the first and second days of June, eighteen hundred and fourteen.

To be paid as dismounted rangers from 25th March to 15th May 1814.
Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That said company be paid, as aforesaid, as dismounted rangers, from the twenty-fifth of March to the fifteenth of May, eighteen hundred and fourteen, inclusive; the said payments to be made out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, however, That this act shall not be so construed, as to entitle any officer, non-commissioned officer, or private, of said company, to pay as aforesaid, from and after the twenty-fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and fourteen, who did not, subsequent to that time, perform duty in said company.

APPROVED, May 20, 1826.

CHAP. CXX.—An Act for the relief of Otway Burns.

Claim of U. S. against him for duties to be settled.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to adjust and settle the claim of the United States against Otway Burns, on certain bonds given by him to the collector of Beaufort, North Carolina, for duties on goods imported into that port, in the brig La Fortuna, and entered at the custom house in the month of August, eighteen hundred and eighteen, on which bonds judgment has been obtained, in the same manner, and under the same rules and regulations of the treasury department, as if no such judgment had been obtained.

APPROVED, May 20, 1826.

CHAP. CXXI.—An Act for the relief of William L. D. Ewing.

A credit to be allowed to him for money lost
by robbery.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed, in settling the accounts of William L. D. Ewing, receiver of public moneys at Vandalia, in the state of Illinois, to pass to the credit of the said Ewing the sum of one thousand dollars, that being the amount which was lost by a robbery of the State Bank of Illinois, on the twenty-sixth March, eighteen hundred and twenty-three, and which the said Ewing had deposited in said bank for safe keeping, the said money being the property of the United States.

APPROVED, May 20, 1826.
