Statute I.

July 4, 1832.

CHAP. CLXX.—An Act for the further relief of John H. Wendell, a captain in the revolutionary war.

Act of May 15, 1828, ch. 53, extended to him.

Be it enacted, &c., That the benefits of the provisions of the act, entitled "An act for the relief of certain surviving officers and soldiers of the army of the revolution," passed May fifteenth, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, be extended to John H. Wendell, a captain in the army of the revolution; and that he be paid and accounted with in the same manner as if he had already complied with the requisitions of the fourth section thereof; to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That, in paying and accounting with the said John H. Wendell, any sums of money paid to him under the act passed the twenty-seventh day of May, eighteen hundred and thirty, entitled "An act for the relief of John H. Wendell, a captain in the revolutionary war," be first deducted; and any further payments under the said last mentioned act shall cease and be discontinued.

Proviso.
