pay is the commutation of his half pay for life; with such interest thereon, as would have been payable to the said James Gibbon, if a certificate had been given him for the amount of said commutation, and the same had by him been subscribed to the funded debt of the United States, under the act of one thousand seven hundred and ninety; to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Act of August 4, 1790, ch. 34.

Sarah Price allowed five years' full pay as widow of Lieut. Price, with interest.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the proper accounting officers of the treasury department, do also settle and adjust the account of William Price, late a lieutenant in the Virginia line on continental establishment, and pay to his widow, Sarah Price, whatever sum of money would have accrued and been payable to him as interest and dividends thereon, had he the said Price received a certificate for the amount of five years' full pay as a lieutenant of infantry, (according to the resolves of Congress, of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three,) and had subscribed the said certificate to the public debt, in conformity with the provisions of the acts of Congress of the fourth and fifth of August, one thousand seven hundred and ninety, which sum of money so found to be due as interest or dividends, and no more, shall be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Act of August 4, 1790, ch. 34.
Act of August 5, 1790, ch. 38.

Interest on commutation of half pay allowed P. Slaughter.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of Treasury be authorized and directed to pay to Philip Slaughter, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, interest upon the commutation of half pay heretofore allowed him.

Approved, March 2, 1833.

RESOLUTION.

March 2, 1833.

No. 3. Resolution for the relief of sundry owners of vessels sunk for the defence of Baltimore.

Memorials to be referred to Third Auditor.

Be it resolved, &c., That the memorial of John S. Stiles, and the memorial of the other owners of vessels, taken and sunk for the defence of Baltimore during the late war, with the papers and documents referred to the Committee on Claims of the House of Representatives in the cases aforesaid, be referred to the Third Auditor for his decision, under the act of May twenty-nine, eighteen hundred and thirty, "for the relief of sundry owners of vessels sunk for the defence of Baltimore;" which decision shall be subject to the supervision of the Secretary of the Navy.

Act of May 29, 1830, ch. 214.

Approved, March 2, 1833.
