

STATUTE I.

June 19, 1834.

CHAP. LXV.—An Act for the relief of the widow and children of George Ludlum, deceased.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to issue a warrant to the widow and children of George Ludlum, deceased, for the military bounty land of the said George, who, during the late war, enlisted as a private in the twenty-ninth United States infantry, for and during the war, and who continued in service until the close thereof.

APPROVED, June 19, 1834.

A military bounty land warrant to issue to them.

STATUTE I.

June 19, 1834.

CHAP. LXVI.—An Act for the relief of Lucy Loomis.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be paid out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Lucy Loomis, widow of Jesse Loomis, late a lieutenant in the militia service of the United States, and who died before the expiration of his term of service, by occasion of sickness contracted in that service, but was, by permission and advice of his attending physician, removed to his family before his death, the full amount to which she would have been entitled had he died in camp and before the expiration of his term of service.

APPROVED, June 19, 1834.

Amount which would have been due to J. Loomis, &c., to be paid to his widow.
Half pay allowed.

STATUTE I.

June 19, 1834.

CHAP. LXVII.—An Act for the relief of the heirs or legal representatives of Doctor John Berrien, deceased.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury department be, and they are hereby, directed to revise the settlement of the account of Doctor John Berrien, commissary of the hospital department in the revolutionary army, made by Benjamin Walker, commissioner of accounts of the hospital, clothing, and marine departments of said army, and to allow to the heirs or legal representatives of said Doctor John Berrien the compensation fixed by the resolution of Congress of February six, seventeen hundred and seventy-eight, as specie, according [to] the report of said Benjamin Walker, made to Congress on the fifteenth of September, seventeen hundred and eighty-six, which is of record in the report-book kept by said Walker, and filed in the office of the First Auditor of the Treasury; and that, on said settlement, if any balance is found due from the United States, the same be paid, with the interest now due, to the heirs or legal representatives of the said Doctor John Berrien, as though a certificate had regularly issued therefor at the time it became due, and the same had been subscribed to the loan created by the act of seventeen hundred and ninety; and that the same be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

APPROVED, June 19, 1834.

Accounts to be revised, and balance found due to be paid to his heirs, &c.

Act of August 4, 1790, ch. 34.

STATUTE I.

June 24, 1834.

CHAP. LXIX.—An Act for the relief of Charles Burkham and others, employed as spies, on the frontier of Arkansas, in eighteen hundred and thirty.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to pay, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Charles Burkham, Josiah F. Little, James E. Hopkins, and Henry Stout, the sum of one hundred and ninety-six dollars each; and to James B. Anderson, John Roberts, William McCowen, and Thomas Moore, the sum of one hundred and fifty-six dollars each; being in full satisfaction for their respective services as Allowance to persons named for services as spies.
