Chap. LXXXIX.—An Act to authorize Letters Patent to be issued to Francis B. Ogden.

Letters patent for an engine for producing motive power to issue.

Be it enacted, &c., That letters patent be issued, in the usual form, to Francis B. Ogden, a citizen of the United States, for "an engine for producing motive power, whereby a greater quantity of power is obtained by a given quantity of fuel than heretofore," upon his complying with all the provisions of the several acts of Congress relative to the issuing of letters patent: Provided, That, instead of the oath required by law to be made by an inventor, it shall be sufficient for the said Francis B. Ogden to swear or affirm "that he does verily believe that he, in conjunction with one John Ericsson, a subject of the King of Sweden, is the true inventor of said engine:" And provided, also, That he shall further swear or affirm "that the said John Ericsson hath made to him a bona fide assignment of all the right, title, and interest, of him, the said John, in and to the said invention in the United States of America."

Proviso.

Proviso.

Invention to be introduced into public use in two years.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said letters patent, and all the privileges thereby granted to the said Francis B. Ogden, shall cease, determine, and become absolutely null and void, without resort
