would have been entitled to receive as a bounty or drawback, if she had been actually at sea during the whole time required by law to entitle her to said bounty, she having been lost before she had accomplished the full term required by law.

Approved, March 3, 1835.

Statute II.
March 3, 1835.

Chap. XCIX.—An Act for the relief of the legal representatives of Aaron Smith.

Payment for property destroyed.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to the legal representatives of Aaron Smith, formerly of the village of Champlain, state of New York, the sum of eighty dollars, in full satisfaction of all loss and damage sustained by said Aaron Smith, by the destruction of his property while in the military service of the United States, by the troops of the United States, out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, March 3, 1835.

Statute II.
March 3, 1835.

Chap. C.—An Act for the relief of Shubael Conant.

Payment to him.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to Shubael Conant, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one thousand and seventy-six dollars and twenty-four cents: Provided, That he shall prove to the satisfaction of the said Secretary that he is the legal owner of the three accounts whose aggregate amount is the sum above mentioned, and which accompanied the said Shubael Conant's petition; the said accounts being for forage purchased for a company of rangers in the service of the United States, in the year eighteen hundred and fifteen, under the command of Captain Audrain.

Proviso.

Approved, March 3, 1835.

Statute II.
March 3, 1835.

Chap. CI.—An Act for the relief of the representative of Thomas Clemmons.

Account for services as an artificer to be adjusted, &c.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury audit and adjust the account of the representative of Thomas Clemmons, for his services as an artificer in the brigade of Kentucky militia in the service of the United States, in the year eighteen hundred and twelve, and allow him such reasonable compensation as he is entitled to as such representative for the services of said Thomas Clemmons as such artificer, and for expenses in removing the gunsmith tools of the said Thomas Clemmons from his residence, until they were transported at public expense, and for the expense of returning them again from the place the said Thomas Clemmons was discharged, to his residence, and for the use of said tools during the term he so had them in the public service.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the sums so found due be paid to said representative, out of any money in the treasury, by the Secretary of the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

Appropriation.

Approved, March 3, 1835.

Statute II.
March 3, 1835.

Chap. CII.—An Act for the relief of Theodore Owens.

Payment for taking census.

Be it enacted, &c., That the proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby, required to pay to Theodore Owens, of Key West, Florida, the sum of three hundred dollars, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for additional compensation for taking the census in the southern district of Florida.

Approved, March 3, 1835.

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO