

ceipts, signed by said Tupper as aforesaid, after suit was commenced, until said applicant shall have paid the costs when suit is commenced. And in all instances where the United States have charged interest on the debt due to the United States, interest is to be computed on the claims of such person for a corresponding period.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said Secretary be directed to make the like credit upon a judgment, or note, against a surety, as he shall make on a judgment, or note, against the proper principal.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the judgments recovered remain uncollected for one year, to enable the claimants to obtain the benefit of this act, and that the suits be continued for that period, for the like purpose: Provided, The sureties file their written consent to said indulgence with the Solicitor of the Treasury within one month after the approval of this act by the President.

APPROVED, June 14, 1836.

Judgments to remain uncollected for one year.
Proviso.

CHAP. XCII.—An Act for the relief of Henry Darling.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Henry Darling, of Bucksport, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents, being the moiety of a forfeiture on a license bond recovered from said Darling as a surety of John Phillips, and paid into the treasury of the United States.

APPROVED, June 14, 1836.

STATUTE I.
June 14, 1836.

Payment of a moiety of a certain forfeiture.

CHAP. XCIII. — An Act for the relief of Joseph Gresham.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to Joseph Gresham, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, one hundred and five dollars, being the forfeiture retained on a contract made between the United States and William Foushee, which was assigned to John Head, the said John Head having drawn an order in favor of the said Joseph Gresham, covering the amount contained in this act; and when the aforesaid sum is paid, the proper accounting officers are directed to charge the same, to balance the account of the said John Head.

APPROVED, June 14, 1836.

STATUTE I.
June 14, 1836.

Payment to him of a certain forfeiture.

CHAP. XCIV.—An Act for the relief of the legal representative of Thomas Haliday, deceased.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the legal representative of Thomas Haliday, deceased, the sum of sixty-two dollars and thirty-five cents, for that amount expended in the public service, under an order from the commandant of the marine corps in Washington, in looking after public property stolen from the marine quartermaster in the year eighteen hundred and fourteen, and while attending court, under a like order, on the trial of a person apprehended for secreting said property.

APPROVED, June 14, 1836.

STATUTE I.
June 14, 1836.

Payment for money expended in the public service.