CHAP. CCCXXXVI.—An Act to extend two patents of James Barron.

Patent for making corks extended for 14 years.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be, and hereby is, granted to James Barron, his heirs, administrators, and assigns, for the term of fourteen years from the fourteenth day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-three, the full and exclusive right and liberty of making, constructing, using, and vending to others to be used, his improvement in the apparatus or machinery for manufacturing bottle corks, a description of which is given in a schedule annexed to letters patent granted to the said James Barron on the thirteenth day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and nineteen.

Patent for a pump extended for 14 years.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there be, and hereby is, granted to the said James Barron, his heirs, administrators, and assigns, for the term of fourteen years from the twentieth day of February, anno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-three, the full and exclusive right and liberty of making, constructing, using, and vending to others to be used, his improvement in the pump for air or water, a description of which is given in a schedule annexed to letters patent granted to the said James Barron for the same, on the twentieth day of February, anno Domini eighteen hundred and nineteen: Provided, That all rights and privileges heretofore sold or granted by said patentee, to make, construct, use, or vend the said improvements, or either of them, and not forfeited by the purchasers or grantees, shall enure to, and be employed by, such purchasers or grantees, respectively, as fully, and upon the same conditions, during the periods thereby granted, as for the term which did exist when such sale or grant was made.

Proviso.

Persons who have constructed, &c., may use the same.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any person who has bona fide erected or constructed any manufacture or machine, for the purpose of putting said improvements, or either of them, into use, after the expiration of said patents heretofore granted, or is now erecting or constructing any manufacture or machine for the purpose aforesaid, shall have and enjoy the right of using such improvement or improvements now erected or constructed, or now being erected or constructed.

APPROVED, July 2, 1836.
