Statute II.

March 3, 1837.

Chap. LVIII.—An Act for the relief of Henry Lee.

A credit to be allowed to John Ricaud.

Be it enacted, &c., That the accounting officers of the treasury department be, and they are hereby, directed and required to admit and pass to the credit of John Ricaud, the sum of two thousand dollars heretofore suspended from his credit, in the settlement of the said John Ricaud's account, as paymaster to the thirty-sixth regiment of United States infantry, commanded at a separate post, by Colonel William Carberry.

Henry Lee released from a judgment as surety of John Ricaud.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That Henry Lee be, and he is hereby, released and fully exonerated from the force and effect of a judgment obtained against him in the district court of the United States, at Richmond, Virginia, as surety of the aforesaid John Ricaud, late paymaster of the thirty-sixth regiment of United States infantry.

Act when to be in force.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall commence and be in force from and after the passage thereof.

Approved, March 3, 1837.

Statute II.

March 3, 1837.

Chap. LIX.—An Act for the relief of William Christy.

Amount due him to be ascertained, &c.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Third Auditor of the Treasury ascertain the amount due to William Christy, as military storekeeper, one year, in the north-western army, under an appointment of General Harrison; and when so ascertained, that he report the same to the Solicitor of the Treasury, who is directed to cause the same to be credited on the principal of a judgment, recovered in favor of the United States against said Christy, in the district court of Louisiana, at the December term of said court in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-seven.

Arrangement to be made with him for payment of judgment.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to make an arrangement with the said William Christy, for the payment of the balance of the principal of said judgment and costs, at any time within five years, by instalments which being paid, according to the stipulations of the parties, the said Secretary is authorized to discharge said judgment.

Approved, March 3, 1837.

Statute II.

March 3, 1837.

Chap. LX.—An Act for the relief of James Brown and John Brown, half breeds, of the Cherokee nation of Indians.

Payment for improvements surrendered by them.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to pay to James Brown the sum of six hundred and forty-seven dollars, and to John Brown the further sum of three hundred and thirty dollars; making, in the aggregate, the sum of nine hundred and seventy-seven dollars, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, as full compensation for the improvements surrendered by the said James Brown and John Brown, under the provisions of the treaty of eighteen hundred and nineteen, between the United States and said nation of Indians.

Approved, March 3, 1837.

Statute II.

March 3, 1837.

Chap. LXI. — An Act for the relief of F. A. Parker.

To be paid for certain expenses incurred.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury pay to Captain F. A. Parker, of the United States navy, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two hundred dollars, for actual expenses incurred by him while commanding the Fairfield sloop of war, in the Mediterranean, during the year eighteen hundred

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO