No. 3. Resolution to authorize a settlement of the accounts of Orange H. Dibble.

Claim for labor, materials, &c., to be examined, &c.

Be it resolved, &c., That the claims of Orange H. Dibble for labor, materials, and all other expenses incurred, and losses sustained by him in making preparations to execute his contract for the construction of the bridge across the Potomac, and which have not heretofore been settled and paid, be examined and ascertained by the Secretary of the Treasury, as nearly as the same can be done, and be laid before Congress at its next session for examination. And the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to apply, in part payment of the same to him, the unexpended balance of the appropriation made for said purpose by the act of the thirtieth of June eighteen hundred and thirty-four: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury is not authorized to make any allowance to the said O. H. Dibble for the purchase of stone or stone quarries, nor any further sum for his personal services.

Act of June 30, 1834, ch. 155. Proviso.
