Statute II.
June 1, 1842.

Chap. XXXIII. — An Act granting a pension to Benjamin Franklin.

A pension allowed him.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be paid to Benjamin Franklin, who received an injury while serving as an ordinary seaman on board of the United States frigate President, in the Mediterranean, in the year eighteen hundred and one, and while in the line of his duty, a pension of six dollars per month, commencing on the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, and continuing during his natural life; to be paid out of the naval pension fund, or, in case of the failure thereof, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, June 1, 1842.

Statute II.
June 4, 1842.

Chap. XXXIV.—An Act for the relief of James Kiser and Barnett Foley, of Missouri.

Authorized to enter certain land.

Be it enacted, &c., That James Kiser and Barnett Foley, of Missouri, or their legal representatives, be, and they are hereby, authorized to enter at the land office, at St. Louis, Missouri, at the price of one dollar and twenty-five cents, per acre, the west half of the north-east quarter of section twenty-six, township thirty-nine, range seven, lying in said district; and upon such entry, and the payment of the purchase money, a patent shall issue, as in other cases: Provided, Said entry be made, and the purchase money paid, within six months from the date of this act: And provided, further, That said land has not been sold by the United States before the passage of this act.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Approved, June 4, 1842.

Statute II.
June 4, 1842.

Chap. XXXV. — An Act for the relief of the Plumb Island Bridge and Turnpike Company.

Payment for a bridge destroyed.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be paid to the Plumb Island Bridge and Turnpike Company, of Newburyport, in the state of Massachusetts, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of eight thousand dollars, for the destruction of a bridge, occasioned by the construction of a breakwater by the United States.

Approved, June 4, 1842.

Statute II.
June 4, 1842.

Chap. XXXVI. — An Act for the relief of Caleb Eddy.

To be paid the amount of drawback of certain duties.

Be it enacted, &c., That there be paid to Caleb Eddy, of Warren, in the state of Rhode Island, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two hundred and eighty-five dollars and eighty-seven cents, for the amount of drawback of duties on thirty-nine bags of coffee, shipped at the port of Boston in the vessel called the Rasselas, in the month of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

Approved, June 4, 1842.

Statute II.
June 4, 1842.

Chap. XXXVII. — An Act for the relief of Elizabeth Pearce and Mary M. Telfair, daughters and heirs of Israel Pearce.

Seven military bounty land warrants to be issued.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War is authorized, and he is hereby required, to issue to Elizabeth Pearce and Mary M. Telfair, jointly, seven United States military land bounty warrants, of one hundred acres each, which appear to be due to the following named individuals, for their services as private soldiers in a Rhode Island regiment, in the war of the revolution, and their right to which they, each and all

AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO