STATUTE II.
Aug. 30, 1842.

CHAP. CCLXXIII.—An Act for the relief of the legal representatives of William D. Cheever, deceased.

Account for loss on treasury notes to be examined, &c.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to cause the account of the legal representatives of William D. Cheever, deceased, for losses sustained on treasury notes paid to or deposited with him, by the Secretary of War, on a contract for the supply of provisions for the army of the United States, in the years eighteen hundred and fourteen and eighteen hundred and fifteen, to be examined and audited by the proper accounting officers of the treasury; that he also inquire upon what grounds the claim of said Cheever for said losses on treasury notes was rejected by the Secretary of War to whom it was presented for settlement; whether such rejection was acquiesced in; if not, why there has been such delay in the prosecution of the claim; and whether, in his opinion, the representatives of said Cheever have now a valid claim against the United States; and that he report his proceedings thereon to Congress at as early a day as is practicable: Provided, That in the settlement of the said accounts, no loss upon treasury notes paid the said Cheever before the twenty-fifth of October, eighteen hundred and fourteen, or after the seventeenth of June, eighteen hundred and fifteen, shall be credited.

Proviso.

APPROVED, August 30, 1842.
