AN ACT

For the relief of Isaac B. Jones.

Isaac B. Jones.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Isaac B. Jones, of Washington, District of Columbia, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $9,000, in full settlement of all claims against the United States, which sum represents a portion of the loss sustained by the said Isaac B. Jones on the bail bond of Alfred Layton, who was afterward captured as a result of Jones' efforts, convicted, and sentenced on a charge of using the mails to defraud. The said sum of $9,000 being the amount of the forfeited bail bond after deducting the total cost to the United States, and is in accordance with the report and recommendation made by the Attorney General to the chairman, Committee on Claims: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved May 31, 1947.
