Quota deduction.

Approved January 26, 1948.
