AN ACT

Relating to telephone and telegraph service and clerk hire for Members of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives.
Telephone and telegraph service.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for each fiscal year beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, in the case of each Member of the House of Representatives, there shall be paid from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives, subject to the limitation provided in section 2, the following charges:

Telephone toll charges.

(a) Toll charges on long-distance telephone calls (1) originating in the Member's office in the District of Columbia, or (2) on toll charges on strictly official business originating outside the District of Columbia but made by the Member to his office in the District of Columbia, to any department, agency, or office of the Federal Government or of the government of the District of Columbia, or to any department, agency, or office of the government of any State or of any political subdivision of a State; and Charges on telegrams.

(b) Charges on telegrams sent by or on behalf of the Member from the District of Columbia or on telegrams sent collect from outside the District of Columbia by the Member to his office in the District of Columbia, to any department, agency, or office of the Federal Government or of the government of the District of Columbia, or to any department, agency, or office of the government of any State or of any political subdivision of a State.
