JOINT RESOLUTION

Making temporary appropriations for the fiscal year 1950, and for other purposes.

May 26, 1950
[H. J. Res. 476]
[Public Law 529]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such amounts as may be necessary to enable the departments, agencies, and corporations for which funds or authorizations are provided in H. R. 8567, Eighty-first Congress, the deficiency appropriation bill, 1950, to pay the compensation of civilian personnel, and the pay and allowances of military personnel, of such departments, agencies, and corporations, and to pay, or contribute toward the payment of, sums provided in said bill for the making of payments to individuals either in specific amounts fixed by law or in accordance with formulae prescribed by law: Provided, That amounts herein made available for the payment of such compensation, pay, and allowances shall not exceed the amounts necessary to supply deficiencies in funds appropriated for such purposes resulting from (1) the enactment, during the Eighty-first Congress, of Acts increasing the rates of such compensation, pay, and allowances; (2) any comparable pay increases granted by administrative action pursuant to law; and (3) any pay increases granted by wage boards; except that this proviso shall not apply to appropriations included in such bill (H. R. 8567) for "Fighting forest fires", Department of Agriculture, and "Office of the Housing Expediter" but no funds may be used to pay compensation of any employee in a grade higher than the grade of such employee on May 22, 1950, and no funds herein shall be used to pay the officers or employees of the Office of Housing Expediter for periods after June 30, 1950: Provided further, That in no event shall the amounts expended under the foregoing exceed the amounts provided in such bill as passed by the House of Representatives: Provided further, That the amounts expended under the foregoing shall be charged against the respective appropriations contained in said bill when it shall have been enacted into law: Provided further, That the Senate may authorize, by resolution, expenditures for the fiscal year 1950, for items under Contingent Expenses of the Senate, for which estimates may be pending before Congress, and not acted upon, on May 17, 1950, but in no event shall such expenditures exceed the amounts of such estimates, and such amounts as may be necessary for such expenditures are hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.
