[CHAPTER 518]

AN ACT

To facilitate the settlement of the accounts of certain deceased civilian officers and employees of the Government.

August 3, 1950
[S. 3652]
[Public Law 636]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to facilitate the settlement of the accounts of deceased civilian officers and employees of the Federal Government and of the government of the District of Columbia (including wholly owned and mixed-ownership Government corporations) all unpaid compensation due such an officer or employee at the time of his death shall be paid to the person or persons surviving at the date of death, in the following order of precedence, and such payment shall be a bar to recovery by any other person of amounts so paid: Deceased employees of Federal and D. C. governments.
Settlement of accounts.
Order of precedence.

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the officer or employee in writing to receive such compensation filed with the Government agency in which the officer or employee was employed at the time of his death, and received by such agency prior to the officer's or employee's death;

Second, if there be no such beneficiary, to the widow or widower of such officer, or employee;

Third, if there be no beneficiary or surviving spouse, to the child or children of such officer or employee, and descendants of deceased children, by representation;
