[S. 1019]
[Private Law 370]

Conferring jurisdiction upon the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington to hear, determine, and render judgment upon any claim arising out of personal injuries sustained by Carl J. Freund and Pauline H. Freund, his wife, of Seattle, Washington.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the jurisdiction conferred upon the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington by subsection (b) of section 1346, title 28, United States Code, is hereby extended to a civil action, which may be commenced not later than one year after the enactment of this Act, asserting any claim or claims of Carl J. Freund and Pauline H. Freund, his wife, of Seattle, Washington, against the United States for money damages arising out of personal injuries sustained by them in a collision between their automobile and a United States Army truck at the intersection of Olga Street and Thirty-eighth Avenue Southwest, Seattle, Washington, on April 23, 1944. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, all provisions of law applicable in and to such subsection, and applicable to judgments therein and appeals therefrom, are hereby made equally applicable in respect of the civil action authorized by this Act: Provided, however, That nothing in this Act does or shall constitute an admission of liability on the part of the Government of the United States of America.

Carl J. Freund and Pauline H. Freund.
