[CHAPTER 563]

AN ACT

For the relief of the estate of the late Franciso J. Córdova.

August 4, 1950
[H. R. 3316]
[Private Law 697]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $5,000 to the administrator of the estate of the late Francisco J. Córdova, who was fatally injured on September 28, 1942, when struck in San Juan, Puerto Rico, by a United States Army passenger wagon. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States on account of such accident: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Francisco J. Córdova, estate.

Approved August 4, 1950.
