AN ACT

For the relief of Hatsuko Torikai.

Hatsuko Torikai.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Hatsuko Torikai, the Japanese fiancée of Frank S. Kino, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and that Hatsuko Torikai may be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Hatsuko Torikai is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Frank S. Kino, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Hatsuko Torikai, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after entry of said Hatsuko Torikai, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of said Hatsuko Torikai as of the date of her entry into the United States, upon the payment by her of the required visa fees and head taxes.
