AN ACT

For the relief of Toshiko Kikyo and Francis Kikyo.

August 11, 1950
[H. R. 8655]
[Private Law 807]

Toshiko Kikyo and Francis Kikyo.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Toshiko Kikyo, the Japanese fiancée of Barre E. Heim, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and her son, Francis Kikyo, and that the said Toshiko Kikyo and her above-named son may be eligible for visas as nonimmigrant temporary visitors for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Toshiko Kikyo is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Barre E. Heim, and that they are found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Toshiko Kikyo and her son, they shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of Toshiko Kikyo and her son, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of them as of the date of their last entry into the United States upon payment of the required visa fees and head taxes.
