Approved March 6, 1950.

[CHAPTER 56]

AN ACT

For the relief of Monroe Kelly, rear admiral, United States Navy, retired.

March 10, 1950
[S. 1394]
[Private Law 393]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Monroe Kelly, rear admiral, United States Navy, retired, the sum of $289.03, which sum represents reimbursement for expenses incurred by him for the storage of his household effects at The Hague, The Netherlands, for the period June 7, 1940, to April 1, 1946, the said Monroe Kelly being on duty as United States Naval Attaché and Naval Attaché for Air at the American Legation, The Hague, The Netherlands, when the German forces invaded the Low Countries on May 10, 1940, was unable because of such invasion to accomplish the return of such household effects when ordered by the Navy Department to return to the United States: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this proviso shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Rear Adm. Monroe Kelly.

Approved March 10, 1950.
