[CHAPTER 845]

AN ACT

For the relief of Jacob F. Hutt and Anderson E. Humphrey.

September 2, 1950
[H. R. 4954]
[Private Law 886]

Jacob F. Hutt and Anderson E. Humphrey.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Jacob F. Hutt, clerk in the United States post office at Jeffersonville, Indiana, is relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the whole or any part of the sum of $682.38, and that Anderson E. Humphrey, clerk in the United States post office at Jeffersonville, Indiana, is relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the whole or any part of the sum of $119.70. Such sums represent a shortage in their accounts resulting from the theft of certain funds and postage stamps from such post office on March 13, 1944. The Comptroller General of the United States is authorized and directed to credit the accounts of the said Jacob F. Hutt and Anderson E. Humphrey in such sums.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Jacob F. Hutt and Anderson E. Humphrey an amount equal to
