AN ACT

September 5, 1950
[H. R. 8558]
[Private Law 918]

For the relief of Kimiko Yamaguchi.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Kimiko Yamaguchi, the Japanese fiancée of Angelo A. Amato, a citizen of the United States, and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and that Kimiko Yamaguchi may be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Kimiko Yamaguchi is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Angelo A. Amato, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Kimiko Yamaguchi, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of said Kimiko Yamaguchi, the Attorney

Kimiko Yamaguchi.
