AN ACT

For the relief of Billy Ray Ridenour and L. L. Ridenour.

Billy Ray Ridenour and L. L. Ridenour.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $10,000, to Billy Ray Ridenour and L. L. Ridenour, his father, of Newcomb, Tennessee. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States arising out of personal injuries sustained by the said Billy Ray Ridenour on October 25, 1935, when he was burned, shocked, and otherwise injured throughout his entire body, head, legs, and arms as the result of an explosion caused by the negligence and wrongful conduct of employees of the Federal Government engaged in work on the public roads of Campbell County, Tennessee, said work being carried on by employees of the Works Projects Administration, and in the performance of which they stored quantities of road materials in iron or steel barrels on a lot in the town of Newcomb, Tennessee, where children were accustomed to congregate and play, and which said road materials thus stored in said barrels generated and emitted when they were unstopped highly inflammable and explosive gases which, when they came in contact with fire, exploded. On the date on which the said Billy Ray Ridenour was injured as aforesaid, he was only seven years of age and another child about the same age threw a lighted match into one of the said steel barrels containing said highly volatile and explosive materials, thereby causing the explosion which injured the said Billy Ray Ridenour as aforesaid; and that in having his said son, Billy Ray Ridenour treated for his injuries aforesaid which were and are of a permanent nature, said L. L. Ridenour expended large sums of money: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 25, 1950.
