

Anne Kane, a minor half-Japanese child, shall be considered the alien natural-born child of Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. Kane, citizens of the United States.

Approved September 25, 1950.

[CHAPTER 1042]

AN ACT

For the relief of Hideko Kasahara and her minor child.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Hideko Kasahara, the Japanese fiancée of Donald W. Doss, a citizen of the United States and a member of the United States Armed Forces, and her minor child, and that the said Hideko Kasahara and her minor child may be eligible for visas as nonimmigrant temporary visitors for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Hideko Kasahara is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Donald W. Doss, and that they are found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Hideko Kasahara and her minor child, they shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of Hideko Kasahara and her minor child, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of them as of the date of their payment by them of the required visa fees and head taxes.

Approved September 25, 1950.

AN ACT

For the relief of Kimie Kurio.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion from the United States of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Kimie Kurio, the Japanese fiancée of Ben T. Yoshikawa, a United States citizen and veteran of World War II. The said Kimie Kurio shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months if the appropriate administration authorities find that the said Kimie Kurio is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Ben T. Yoshikawa and that she is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. If the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Kimie Kurio, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended (8 U. S. C., secs. 155 and 156). If the above named parties are married within three months after the entry of the said Kimie Kurio, the Attorney
