AN ACT

For the relief of the legal guardian of Janet Judith Koeninger, a minor.

Guardian of Janet Judith Koeninger.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the two-year limitation on certain suits in admiralty against the United States contained in section 5 of the Suits in Admiralty Act, approved March 9, 1920, as amended (U. S. C., 1940 edition, title 46, sec. 745), is hereby waived in favor of the legal guardian of Janet Judith Koeninger, a minor, Chillicothe, Texas; and such legal guardian may sue the United States on the claim of Janet Judith Koeninger arising out of the death of her father, the late J. B. Koeninger (who lost his life in the explosion at Port Chicago, California, on July 17, 1944, while serving as a civilian employee of the United States in the capacity of a member of the crew of the War Shipping Administration vessel Quinault Victory), under the remaining provisions of such Suits in Admiralty Act, as amended, if such legal guardian brings suit within one year after the date of the enactment of this Act.

AN ACT

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money not heretofore appropriated, to Xylda L. Driver, of Tunica, Mississippi, the sum of $111.24, in full settlement of all claims against the United States for Social Security payment on account of the death of her son, William Richard Driver, who died on August 5, 1941: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 27, 1950.
