[Private Law 1013]

Conrad L. Steele, estate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $5,000 to the estate of Conrad L. Steele, of Washington, District of Columbia, in full settlement of all claims against the United States as compensation for the death of the said Conrad L. Steele, who was shot and killed at 11 East Capitol Street, Washington, District of Columbia, by Johnny Rathbun, United States soldier stationed at Bolling Field, on February 23, 1942: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Grace A. Olson.

September 27, 1950
[H. R. 6409]
[Private Law 1014]

Mrs. Grace A. Olson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Grace A. Olson, of Sturgis, South Dakota, the sum of $11,220. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Mrs. Grace A. Olson against the United States arising out of the death of Leverett H. Nugent. The said Leverett H. Nugent died as a result of an airplane collision which occurred at Salt Lake City, Utah, on August 26, 1946, and which, according to the investigation report of the Civil Aeronautics Board, was caused by the pilot of a United States Navy airplane. Although the said Mrs. Grace A. Olson was the foster mother of the said Leverett H. Nugent, the relief for tort claims against the United States provided by chapter 171 of title 28 of the United States Code is inapplicable in her case because she never legally adopted the said Leverett H. Nugent: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

62 Stat. 982.
28 U. S. C., Sup. III, § 2671 et seq.

Approved September 27, 1950.
