For the relief of Ottavia De Gaspare and Sandra De Gaspare.

Ottavia De Gaspare and daughter.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of the immigration laws, the aliens Ottavia De Gaspare (the Italian fiancée of Salvatore Ciccone, a United States citizen and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II), and her minor daughter, Sandra De Gaspare, shall be eligible for admission to the United States as nonimmigrant temporary visitors for a period of three months if the appropriate administrative authorities find that the said Ottavia De Gaspare is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Salvatore Ciccone, and that she is otherwise admissable under the immigration laws. If the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Ottavia De Gaspare and her minor daughter, she and her minor daughter shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, as amended (U. S. C. 1946 edition, title 8, secs. 155 and 156). If the above-named parties are married within three months after the entry of the said Ottavia De Gaspare and her minor daughter, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Ottavia De Gaspare and her minor daughter, Sandra De Gaspare, as of the date of their entry into the United States upon the payment of the required visa fees and head taxes.

For the relief of the estate of Francis A. Waldron.

Francis A. Waldron, estate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $11,145.38 to the estate of Francis A. Waldron, of Brooklyn, New York. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States on account of the death of the said Francis A. Waldron, the property damages sustained, and the burial and other expenses sustained when the taxicab in which he was riding was struck by a United States Army vehicle at the intersection of Highway Numbered 525 and Reynolds Avenue in Charleston, South Carolina, on September 1, 1945, while the operator of said vehicle was acting outside the scope of his employment: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any
