[CHAPTER 1098]

AN ACT

For the relief of Mikiko Anzai.

September 28, 1950
[S. 3434]
[Private Law 1034]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Mikiko Anzai, the Japanese fiancée of Yoshiteru Murakami, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and that Mikiko Anzai may be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Mikiko Anzai is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Yoshiteru Murakami, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Mikiko Anzai, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of said Mikiko Anzai, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of said Mikiko Anzai as of the date of her entry into the United States, upon the payment by her of the required fees and head tax.

Mikiko Anzai.
