[CHAPTER 131]

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Raymond Schaffer, Junior.

April 28, 1950
[H. R. 6345]
[Private Law 435]

Mrs. Raymond Schaffer, Jr.

43 Stat. 162.
8 U. S. C. § 213 (c).

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of the immigration and naturalization laws, the provisions of section 13 (c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended, which excludes from the United States persons who are ineligible to citizenship, shall not hereafter apply to Mrs. Raymond Schaffer, Junior, a native of Japan, who is the wife of Raymond Schaffer, Junior, of York, Pennsylvania, an honorably discharged veteran of World War II and a citizen of the United States. If otherwise admissible under the immigration laws the said Mrs. Raymond Schaffer, Junior, shall be granted the status of a nonquota immigrant.

Approved April 28, 1950.

[CHAPTER 132]

AN ACT

For the relief of Ervin Haas and Leno Vescovi.

April 28, 1950
[H. R. 6694]
[Private Law 436]

Ervin Haas and Leno Vescovi.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the instructions of the Navy Department contained in Navy Civilian Personnel Instructions (N. C. P. I. 250, Rev. II), Ervin Haas, former fire chief, United States naval submarine base, New London, Connecticut, from January 26, 1942, to October 2, 1944, and Leno Vescovi, former fire chief, United States naval submarine base, New London, Connecticut, from October 5, 1944, to May 5, 1948, shall be held and considered to have been entitled to occupancy of public quarters without charge while serving as fire chief at the afore-mentioned naval submarine base; and such persons shall not be subject to charge for the accumulated appraised value of the rental and utilities furnished for such periods in the amounts of $645.65 and $860.86, respectively: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved April 28, 1950.

[CHAPTER 133]
