May 10, 1950
[H. R. 3536]
[Private Law 462]

Mrs. Nora Johnson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Nora Johnson, of Chaseburg, Wisconsin, the sum of $388.80. Such sum is equal to the compensation which the said Mrs. Nora Johnson would have received under existing law, for the year 1947, as the widow with a child of a World War I veteran, if her annual income for such year had not been in excess of the amount of annual income allowable in her case for receipt of such compensation. The annual income of the said Mrs. Nora Johnson for 1947 was determined to be in excess of such allowable amount by reason of payment to her on February 26, 1947, of the sum of $1,021.15 in settlement of her claim for accumulated annual leave of her deceased husband, Sam Johnson, an employee of the Post Office Department, although such claim was filed in September 1946 shortly after the death of her husband on March 19, 1946: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved May 10, 1950.
