AN ACT

For the relief of Masae Marumoto.

May 25, 1950
[S. 2427]
[Private Law 471]

Masae Marumoto.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Masae Marumoto, the Japanese fiancée of Captain Harry Ost, of Fredonia, North Dakota, and that the said Masae Marumoto may be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Masae Marumoto is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Captain Harry Ost, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Masae Marumoto, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, sections 155 and 156). In the event that the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Masae Marumoto, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Masae Marumoto as of the date of her entry into the United States upon the payment of the required head tax and visa fee.

Approved May 25, 1950.
