AN ACT

For the relief of Taeko Suzuki.

June 7, 1950
[H. R. 6655]
[Private Law 479]

Taeko Suzuki.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Taeko Suzuki, the Japanese fiancée of Harold Thurston, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and that Taeko Suzuki may be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Taeko Suzuki is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Harold Thurston, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Taeko Suzuki, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after entry of said Taeko Suzuki, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of said Taeko Suzuki, as of the date of her entry into the United States, upon the payment by her of the required fees and head taxes.

[CHAPTER 223]

AN ACT

For the relief of the legal guardian of Lena Mae West, a minor.

June 8, 1950
[H. R. 1285]
[Private Law 480]

Guardian of Lena Mae West.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the legal guardian of Lena Mae West, a minor, of Manchester, Coffee County, Tennessee, the sum of $5,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States (1) for compensation in the nature of damages for personal injuries permanently sustained by the said Lena Mae West on June 23, 1942, when she was struck near her home by a United States Army vehicle, and (2) for reimbursement of hospital and medical expenses incurred by reason of such injuries. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 8, 1950.
