AN ACT

For the relief of Edward C. Ritche.

June 13, 1950
[S. 2385]
[Private Law 486]

Edward C. Ritche.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Edward C. Ritche the sum of $8,000, in full satisfaction of his claim against the United States for compensation for personal injuries sustained by him as a result of an accident which occurred when the automobile in which he was a passenger was struck by an automobile being driven by Byron Goodall while in the course of his employment with the United States Immigration Service in Chicago, Illinois, on July 20, 1938; the said Edward C. Ritche having obtained a judgment for $8,000 against the said Byron Goodall in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, on account of such injuries: Provided, That the said Edward C. Ritche shall furnish to the Secretary of the Treasury satisfactory evidence of the relief of the said Byron Goodall from liability for the payment of such judgment: Provided further, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 13, 1950.
