in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Nathalie E. Cobb, New Orleans, Louisiana (widow of Lieutenant Commander Otto C. Cobb, United States Coast Guard Reserve), a sum equal to the amount of the pay and allowances owed her husband plus the six months' death gratuity provided for widows of persons who die while serving on active duty with the armed forces of the United States, both of which claims have been established as a result of the correction of the military records of her husband pursuant to the provisions of section 207 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Mrs. Nathalie E. Cobb against the United States for such pay and allowances and for such gratuity: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

60 Stat. 837.
5 U. S. C. § 191a and note.

Approved June 14, 1950.

[CHAPTER 246]

AN ACT

For the relief of C. R. Springman.

June 14, 1950
[H. R. 5295]
[Private Law 492]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to C. R. Springman, of Brownsville, Texas, the sum of $11,038.40. Such sum represents reimbursement for excessive duties paid by the said C. R. Springman as a result of the erroneous appraisal of the value of certain chewing gum imported by him from Mexico: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

C. R. Springman.

Approved June 14, 1950.
