[CHAPTER 255]

AN ACT

For the relief of Hugo Geiger.

June 15, 1950
[S. 356]
[Private Law 494]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of the immigration laws, relating to the issuance of immigration visas for admission to the United States for permanent residence and relating to admissions at port of entry of aliens as immigrants for permanent residence in the United States, that provision of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended (U. S. C., title 8, sec. 136 (e)), which excludes from admission into the United States persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, shall not hereafter be held to apply to Hugo Geiger, the son of Otto and Karoline Geiger, who are American citizens, on account of the offense alleged to have been committed by him in connection with a theft of food in Germany. If he is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws, an immigration visa may be issued and admission granted to the said Hugo Geiger under this Act upon application hereafter filed.

Hugo Geiger.

39 Stat. 875.

SEC. 2. Upon the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall instruct the proper quota-control officer to deduct one number from the nonpreference category of the quota for nationals of Germany during the current year.

Quota deduction.

Approved June 15, 1950.

AN ACT

For the relief of Emma L. Jackson.

June 15, 1950
[S. 404]
[Private Law 495]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $5,000, to Emma L. Jackson, of Indianapolis, Indiana, in full settlement of all claims against the United States on account of the death of her husband, Everett L. Jackson, who died as a result of injuries sustained while fighting a fire at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, May 31, 1945: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Emma L. Jackson.

Approved June 15, 1950.
