[S. 1702]
[Private Law 361]

Riyoko Sato.
43 Stat. 162.
8 U. S. C. § 213 (c).

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the provisions of section 13 (c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended, or any of the other provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens ineligible to citizenship, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to permit the entry into the United States for permanent residence of Riyoko Sato, the Japanese fiancée of William F. Corkery, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Riyoko Sato is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to William F. Corkery and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Riyoko Sato, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, sections 155 and 156).

Approved February 14, 1950.
