[CHAPTER 282]

AN ACT

For the relief of Kate Laursen.

June 16, 1950
[H. R. 4015]
[Private Law 512]

Kate Laursen.

39 Stat. 875.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the provisions of the eleventh category of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended (8 U. S. C. 136 (e)), insofar as concerns any act or acts of Kate Laursen of which the Department of Justice has notice at the time of enactment of this Act, the said Kate Laursen may be admitted to the United States for permanent residence if she is not found to be otherwise inadmissible under the provisions of the immigration laws.

Approved June 16, 1950.

[CHAPTER 283]

AN ACT

For the relief of J. O. Evans.

June 16, 1950
[H. R. 6371]
[Private Law 513]

J. O. Evans.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to J. O. Evans, of Cookeville, Tennessee, the sum of $2,500. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said J. O. Evans against the United States on account of personal injuries sustained by him on November 30, 1943, when the automobile which he was driving was struck by a United States Army jeep on Highway 70 between Donelson and Nashville, Tennessee: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 16, 1950.

[CHAPTER 284]

AN ACT

For the relief of Louise M. Koch.

June 16, 1950
[H. R. 6385]
[Private Law 514]

Louise M. Koch.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Louise M. Koch, of Highland, Illinois, the sum of $11,973.67, in full settlement of all claims against the United States, on account of personal injuries, pain and suffering, and loss of earnings sustained, and medical and hospital expenses incurred by her as a result of an accident, involving an Army vehicle, which occurred on November
