[CHAPTER 287]

AN ACT

For the relief of Mitsuko Uemura.

June 16, 1950
[H. R. 6689]
[Private Law 517]

Mitsuko Uemura.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion from the United States of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Mitsuko Uemura, the Japanese fiancée of Clement Don Jones, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II. The said Mitsuko Uemura shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months if the appropriate administrative authorities find that the said Mitsuko Uemura is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Clement Don Jones and that she is otherwise admissable under the immigration laws. If the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Mitsuko Uemura, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, as amended (U. S. C., 1946 edition, title 8, secs. 155 and 156). If the above-named parties are married within three months after the entry of the said Mitsuko Uemura, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Mitsuko Uemura, as of the date of her entry into the United States, upon the payment by her of the required fees and head tax.

39 Stat. 889, 890.
8 U. S. C., Sup. III, § 155.
64 Stat., Pt. 1, p. 1010.

Approved June 16, 1950.

AN ACT

For the relief of E. G. Morris.

June 16, 1950
[H. R. 6991]
[Private Law 518]

E. G. Morris.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to E. G. Morris, of Bryn Adda, Dolgelley, Merioneth, North Wales, Great Britain, the sum of $11,970, in full settlement of all claims against the United States for service aboard the steamship Taiyuan and on account of his subsequent restraint and detention by the Japanese Government during World War II: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or agents, or attorney or attorneys, on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 16, 1950.
