AN ACT

For the relief of Kazuyo Dohi.

Kazuyo Dohi.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Kazuyo Dohi, the Japanese fiancée of William H. Beauchamp, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and that Kazuyo Dohi may be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Kazuyo Dohi is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said William H. Beauchamp and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Kazuyo Dohi, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of said Kazuyo Dohi, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of said Kazuyo Dohi as of the date of her entry into the United States, upon the payment by her of the required fees and head tax.

AN ACT

To provide for the conveyance of certain real property in Hopkins County, Kentucky, to the estate of James D. Meadors.

James D. Meadors, estate.
Conveyance.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is hereby authorized and directed to convey to the estate of James D. Meadors, late of Dawson Springs, Kentucky, all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to certain real property in Hopkins County, Kentucky. Such real property was conveyed to the United States by the late James D. Meadors and his wife, the late Ella C. Meadors, for use by the United States for the construction and maintenance of a highway, but such real property is no longer being used for highway purposes. Such real property is more particularly described as follows:

A strip of land one hundred feet in width, being fifty feet on each side of the centerline of the roadway which centerline begins at a point on the line between the lands of Cynthia C. Campbell and Matilda Dunning and of James D. Meadors, south sixty-nine degrees east nine hundred and forty feet from the corner of said lands of Cynthia C. Campbell and Matilda Dunning and of Mrs. Lou Coleman Cook, said point being on a five degree curve to the left and at station 25 plus 12.8 on said highway location, and running with said curve two hundred thirty-one and six-tenths feet to the point of tangent
