[CHAPTER 339]

AN ACT

For the relief of Francis W. Dodge.

June 21, 1950
[S. 1146]
[Private Law 564]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Francis W. Dodge is hereby relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the amount of the overpayment of salary received by him, as a temporary employee in the postal service at Goffstown, New Hampshire, from July 1, 1946, to the date when it was determined that the rate properly payable to him was five cents per hour less than the amount he had been receiving. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any postmaster or other disbursing officer of the Post Office Department or postal service, the overpayment to the said Francis W. Dodge during the time specified shall be considered to have been authorized.

Francis W. Dodge.

Approved June 21, 1950.

[CHAPTER 340]

AN ACT

For the relief of the Clark Funeral Home.

June 21, 1950
[S. 2070]
[Private Law 565]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Clark Funeral Home, Hundred, West Virginia, the sum of $300.00, in full satisfaction of its claim against the United States for services in connection with the transportation of Monard G. Snider, a veteran, from Waynesburg Hospital, Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, to the Veterans' Administration Hospital, Hines, Illinois, on February 19 and 20, 1949: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Clark Funeral Home.

Approved June 21, 1950.

[CHAPTER 341]

AN ACT

For the relief of Erik H. Lindman.

June 21, 1950
[H. R. 3675]
[Private Law 566]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Erik H. Lindman, warrant officer, retired, United States Coast Guard, is relieved of all liability to refund to the United States any of the compensation paid to him as a civilian employee of the War Department during the period beginning on March 23, 1942, and ending on May 1, 1945, both dates inclusive. The Comptroller General has ruled that $14,069.89 so paid Warrant Officer Lindman was paid in contravention of section 2 of the Appropriation Act of July 31, 1894, as amended (5 U. S. C., sec. 62), although Warrant Officer Lindman was advised by a Coast Guard officer before accepting such employment that his receipt of such compensation would not be in contravention of such

Erik H. Lindman.

28 Stat. 205.
