AN ACT

For the relief of the Alamo Irrigation Company.

February 14, 1950
[S. 2119]
[Private Law 368]

Whereas Alamo Irrigation Company, of Alamo, Nevada, under date of August 7, 1946, executed its promissory note to the United States for $46,200 for moneys advanced on that date by the United States for the purpose of lining its irrigation canals and installing therein certain turn-out structures pursuant to an Act of August 28, 1937, entitled "An Act to promote conservation in the arid and semiarid areas of the United States by aiding in the development of facilities for water storage and utilization, and for other purposes" (50 Stat. 869); and

Whereas Alamo Irrigation Company was not permitted to use the funds advanced unless countersigned by a duly authorized representative of the Secretary of Agriculture; and

Whereas Alamo Irrigation Company was unable to obtain bids within the limits of available funds for lining the canals and was further delayed from the use of such funds by the necessity of transporting irrigation water until the 1947 crops were matured: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That interest which accrued on said note from August 7, 1946, to June 17, 1947, in the sum of $1,193.50 is hereby waived and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to cause the proper entries to be made in the accounting records of the Department of Agriculture to effect such waiver.

Approved February 14, 1950.
