AN ACT

For the relief of Suzuko Yagi and Anne Yagi.

Suzuko Yagi and Anne Yagi.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Suzuko Yagi, the Japanese fiancée of Andrew Bacnik, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and her daughter, Anne Yagi, and that said Suzuko Yagi and her above-named daughter may be eligible for visas as nonimmigrant temporary visitors for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Suzuko Yagi is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Andrew Bacnik, and that they are found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Suzuko Yagi and her daughter, they shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of Suzuko Yagi and her daughter, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of them as of the date of their entry into the United States, upon the payment by them of the required visa fees and head taxes.
