For the relief of E. C. Browder and Charles Keylon.

E. C. Browder and Charles Keylon.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to E. C. Browder and Charles Keylon, of Harriman, Tennessee, the sum of $4,800, in full satisfaction of their claim against the United States for damages sustained by them when they were notified by the United States Government that condemnation proceedings previously instituted against the farm of E. C. Browder had been abandoned, and then
