Private Law 258 CHAPTER 410

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Rose A. Mongrain.

September 22, 1951
[H. R. 857]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Rose A. Mongrain, Lowell, Massachusetts, the sum of $5,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Mrs. Rose A. Mongrain against the United States on account of personal injuries sustained by her on June 15, 1944, when she slipped and fell on the wet floor of the lobby of the main post office building in Lowell, Massachusetts: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Mrs. Rose A. Mongrain.

Approved September 22, 1951.
